

Abrasive / grinding wheels safety training

Location

Onsite

Duration

Half day

Price

TBA on proposal

No. delegates

Max. 12

Please note certificates of attendance or accreditation will be issued on receipt of payment & attendance.

Who should attend?

Anyone involved with any form of abrasive / cutting / grinding wheel

Aim / objectives

Delegates will be assessed into their ability to mount and change abrasive wheels

Overview

This half day course fully complies with your responsibilities under the Provision and Use of Work Equipment Regulations 1998 and is ideal training course to ensure that individuals who have not yet received training in the mounting and changing of abrasive products, satisfy your legal requirement for competent people. The course will cover the following:

- Accident causation with wheels and steps to prevent failure.
- Characteristics of wheels
- Inspections of wheels and typical faults.
- Methods of marking abrasive wheels BS EN 12413
- Practical fitting of wheels and safety steps to be followed

For further details please contact Anneka Thomson on 03450 570 042 or anneka.thomson@builders.org.uk

TERMS & CONDITIONS

All places are allocated on a first come first served basis. Completion and return of a booking form will hold a provisional booking for seven days. Bookings will only be confirmed on receipt of full payment. Payment must be received 14 days prior to event date. On receipt of payment; confirmation of booking together with course information and VAT receipts will be issued by the course administrator. NFB Training reserves the right to alter trainers, timing and venue of the course for reasons beyond their control. NFB Training are constantly updating and improving course content and reserves the right to alter any of the course's content without prior notice.

CANCELLATIONS

Refunds (less an administrative fee of 30%) will be made for cancellations received in writing more than 10 working days prior to the event. No refund is available for cancellations made within the 10 working days prior to the event. Delegates may be substituted in order to avoid cancellation at any time prior to the event. There will be no charge if a substitute person wishes to replace the original delegate. Please inform the course administrator of any change to the original booking. The NFB shall make every effort to avoid the cancellation or rescheduling of an event. However we reserve the right to cancel an event at any time and, should the need arise, the NFB shall endeavour to provide attendees notice in good time and refund or reallocate any payments made in respect of the event. The NFB cannot accept liability for expenses or any other losses relating to costs or time to the delegate or their company.